

I strongly urge the FCC to support satellite radio's ability to provide local content. I live in a remote part of Western MD and I can not reliably receive traffic information, and I commute to the city, so this is critical. XM provides this and other services which are important to people such as myself who have long commutes.
Support Satellite Radio.

Thank you.